Part E: Narrative Evaluation by Host Supervisor

1.Main tasks performed by the intern: The intern took part in several sessions covering the current political environment, CV and LinkedIn profile building, the Kashmir issue and recent unrest, and Islamophobia. After each session, she submitted a summary in her own words. Following the research methodology session, she conducted research on her assigned topic and produced an article for publication.

2.Strengths observed: The intern produced excellent-quality content and showed strong skill in English subtitling. Work was submitted on time, and her communication was clear and professional.

3.Specific evidence of analytical/economics-related contribution, if any: Following the research methodology session, she conducted independent research on her topic, drew evidence-based conclusions, and published the work as an article at ICEP.

4.Any concern about attendance, conduct, confidentiality or authenticity: None

5.Areas requiring improvement: Could further develop analytical depth on research topics and confidence in offering independent opinions.
